City, Arkla Reach a Compromise

At the regular scheduled meeting of the City Board of Directors last night, a Resolution was passed on a compromise agreement with The Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company covering the relocation of gas lines on South Main Street.

The company had shown a total cost of $40,000 to cover their work, $7,000 of which were expenses they were not asking to be reimbursed on. After crediting the used life of the existing lines, they came to the City with a request for reimbursement in the amount of $25,965.

The franchise to the gas company, issued in 1910, was not clear on the right of the city to force relocation of the lines. The gas company's attorneys felt that they could, by court action, recover all the cost of relocation, and there have been some cases in Arkansas which indicated they might be right. They explained that they did not want to go to court and disturb their relations with the community.

From already established precedents, the City Officials were uncertain of their legal position in the matter. A compromise settlement was reached in which the city agreed to stand $13,500 of the total cost of relocation.

An ordinance was read for the second time changing the zoning of approximately 6 acres of land from R-1 to R-3. This land belongs to the Lemley Estate and is located south of 18th Street and west of the L&A Railroad.

Bank President Convicted in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Harlan Lane was fined $5,000 and given a six-month prison sentence Tuesday in U.S. District Court on conviction of stipulating a $125,000 commission for himself in a loan he arranged through Union National Bank, which he formerly headed.

The conviction was a misdemeanor.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley imposed the sentence. Leon B. Catlett, attorney for Lane, said the conviction would be appealed.

Cotton Belt Derailment

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP)—Two persons were injured today when the locomotive of a Cotton Belt freight train crashed into the caboose of another Cotton Belt freight train southwest of here near Thornton.

A spokesman said one person was treated for minor injuries and released and that the other person was hospitalized. Neither was identified.

Court Nominee Assailed by Head of Auto Union

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — An AFL-CIO spokesman testified today that Supreme Court nominee William H. Rehnquist has a public record that "demonstrates him to be a right wing zealot."

In urging the Senate Judiciary Committee to reject Rehnquist's nomination, Andrew J. Biemiller, legislative director for the labor organization, said that the Justice Department official "does not know what the Constitution is all about."

Biemiller testified after Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., went before the committee to urge approval of Lewis F. Powell Jr., a Richmond, Va., lawyer who has been nominated by President Nixon to fill a second vacancy on the Supreme Court.

Weicker said that he has known Powell for 25 years and "from whatever view, he has always lived for the America that was dreamt to be."

Leonard Woodcock, president of the United Auto Workers, opposed Rehnquist as possessing

Food Prices Hard to Predict Under Board Guidelines

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor disagreements over Pay Board guidelines on wage increases have upset Agriculture Department economists who are trying shakily to predict how much food costs may rise next year.

The department says, however, that plentiful supplies of such farm products as pork and grain point to an over-all retail food-price rise this year of 3 per cent, compared with a 5.5-per-cent hike in 1970.

Looking ahead to 1972 is not so easy. The department said Tuesday in a report that retail food prices depend much on how Phase 2 of the Nixon administration's economic plan is carried out.

"Phase 1 of the wage-price freeze was scheduled to end on Nov. 14 and the operating rules in Phase 2 are still being worked out, so the price outlook is uncertain," officials said.

Although price-control guidelines are pending for the second phase, labor leaders have served notice against the 5.5-per-cent wage-increase restriction laid down by the Pay Board.

Looking ahead to the first half of 1972, food prices in grocery stores likely will increase from current levels with pork, fresh fruit and vegetables and eggs leading the way in response to smaller prospective supplies, the report said.

Fresh fruit, vegetables and eggs are exempt from the current freeze, and retail cuts of pork are far below the legal ceiling, officials said.

"Increases in prices of other foods will depend largely on the guidelines in Phase 2 and the reactions of consumers and marketing firms to them," the department said.

Consumers are expected to spend a record $120.6 billion at food stores this year, compared with $114.3 billion in 1970.

Farmers, meanwhile, are feeling the continued pressure of middlemen on prices they receive for raw products, which are not covered by the price freeze.

A "market basket" of food items in September cost an annual rate of $1.252 in retail stores, down $12 from August but nearly 2 per cent more than a year earlier.

Farmers during the month received $471 as their share of consumer spending for the market-basket list, down $15 from August. The middleman's share rose $3 during the month to a yearly rate of $781.

"neither the breadth of vision nor the humanity which is required of a Supreme Court justice."

In testimony prepared for the Senate Judiciary Committee today, Woodcock said Rehnquist's record is "consistently far-right."

As an example, the union president's testimony went on, Rehnquist once took exception to a Washington newspaper editorial opposing nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell to the high court.

Woodcock said Rehnquist felt the paper sought a "restoration of the (Earl) Warren court's majority," which "would have the result of not merely further expansion of the constitutional recognition of civil rights, but also of further expansion of the constitutional rights of criminal defendants, of pornographers and of demonstrators."

Woodcock said: "We submit that these hyperbolic and loaded words tell the Senate a good deal more about who uttered them than they do about the Warren court."

Woodcock's remarks were delivered to the committee by William H. Dodds, director of the UAW Citizenship Department.

Lewis F. Powell Jr., the second nominee of President Nixon, was noted by Woodcock as having commanded much respect from many who do not agree with his views, "but who find his discussion of legal issues to be thoughtful, scholarly and moderate."

Tuesday, Rehnquist was criticized by Joseph L. Rauh Jr., of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights as "a lawyer without compassion for blacks and other minorities and a lawyer who never once had spoken up for the Bill of Rights."

Nominee Lewis F. Powell Jr. of Richmond, Va., was attacked by Henry L. Marsh III, a black attorney and Richmond city council member. He said Powell consistently attempted to thwart federal court bans on subsidies of white parents who were sending their children to private schools during the perverted Powell was on the Virginia state board of education from 1961 to 1966.

China to Aid UN Bid by Jakobson

By ALEC COLLETT
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Red China's arrival in the United Nations is likely to boost the candidacy of Max Jakobson of Finland to succeed Secretary-General U Thant, according to diplomats whose governments maintain close relations with Peking.

The Chinese reportedly will give priority to the choice of a new secretary-general, who must be approved by all five permanent members of the Security Council, including China. The diplomats said the Peking regime has indicated it will not oppose Jakobson, who has wide support among African and Asian as well as European nations.

Jakobson, Finland's U.N. ambassador, is one of four or five leading contenders for the job. Britain and the United States are known to favor him.

"There are a number of things the United States dislikes about Jakobson," said one source, "but they are willing to support him."

Because of Finland's delicate relations with its big Soviet neighbor, the Finnish government reportedly sounded out Moscow before putting up Jakobson for the post.

Thant, who is in a New York hospital with a bleeding ulcer, is retiring Dec. 31 after 10 years in the post.

Ambassador Hamilton Shirley Amerasinghe of Ceylon is regarded as the No. 2 contender. The other leading candidates are Ambassador Kurt Waldheim of Austria, former U.N. Ambassador Kai Endalkachew Makonnen of Ethiopia, now a cabinet minister, and Felipe Herrera of Chile, former president of the Inter-American Bank.

Diplomatic sources said another African, Ambassador Nsanze Terence of Burundi plans to declare his candidacy this week, although he lacks the support of most African nations.

There has been no active campaigning for any of the candidates pending the arrival of the Chinese delegation. It left Peking Tuesday and is due in New York on Thursday.

When Jakobson first declared his candidacy, a number of Arab delegates expressed reservations because of his Jewish ancestry. But African diplomats who support the Arabs on Middle East questions say that when Finland was a member of the Security Council, Jakobson "always voted objectively" on Middle East questions.

Jakobson's supporters claim that the reason he is such a strong candidate is because he is considered forceful enough to "give a new sense of purpose and direction, and bring a new vitality to the United Nations."

Supporters of Mills Begin Draft Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., opened an office in Washington Tuesday to coordinate their Draft Mills for President campaign.

The official opening was presided over by Re. James Burke, D-Mass., a leading House supporter of Mills.

Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has said he will not run for President but will accept a draft from his party.

Burke opened the eighth-floor office in a downtown Washington building and said Mills is a man who knows the economy and is well qualified in foreign affairs.

He said the office will be manned by volunteers and will concentrate on answering mail queries and contacting potential delegates to the Democratic National Convention to line up support for Mills.

Accident Kills Paris Teenager

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Margaret Ann Schluterman, 17, of near Paris died in a Fort Smith hospital Tuesday of injuries suffered Sunday in a traffic accident, State Police said. Officers said Miss Schluterman was injured while riding in a car which hit a culvert and overturned in Paris on Arkansas 22.

Chile Will Give Castro Big Welcome

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — President Salvador Allende readied a warm welcome today for Prime Minister Fidel Castro, arriving on his first trip outside Cuba in seven years. The Marxist president promised his Communist guest a personal guided tour of Chile.

There were no extravagant welcoming displays in downtown Santiago, but along the route from the airport building walls blossomed with "Salud, Fidel" and other welcoming signs. Members of the Communist party rode about scattering leaflets showing Castro's face in profile and saying: "Companion Fidel, You Are Among Friends."

On Friday Castro and Allende are to fly 825 miles north to the nitrate and copper port of Antofagasta. From there they will go into the nearby Atacama desert to look at nitrate fields and perhaps a recently nationalized American copper mine.

Next week the two leaders will visit Chile's scenic south, a land of blue lakes, snow-capped volcanoes and canals. Traveling by plane, boat and car, they are expected to go almost to the tip of the continent. Later they will return to Santiago for talks with members of the left-wing political parties that make up Allende's government.

Allende's Popular Unity government, which includes Communists and Socialists, was inaugurated Nov. 3, 1970, and established diplomatic relations with Cuba nine days later.

This is Castro's first trip to another Latin-American country since he seized power nearly 13 years ago and his first trip outside Cuba since 1964, when he went to the Soviet Union.

It was not known exactly how long he would stay, but Allende told a news conference Tuesday there will be a big rally for Castro's sendoff "so the people can applaud him once again."

Allende said Castro's visit should lead to an increase in commercial, political and cultural exchanges between Chile and Cuba.

Forestry Survey Is Underway

The Arkansas Forestry Commission in cooperation with the U. S. Forest Service, is currently conducting a survey of pine plantations in this area to determine the amount of fusiform rust disease present. The fusiform rust disease causes swellings (cankers) on the stems and branches of young southern pine trees. These swellings cause injury to the tree, and sometimes result in death of the tree.

The objective of the survey is to pinpoint areas of serious infection, so that future management plans can be revised according to the amount of infection present. Also, the survey will indicate the number of disease resistant seedlings that need to be grown in nurseries for future renewal of our forests.

To make the survey, lines that intersect each other at ten mile intervals are drawn on a county map. A pine plantation is then located at each of these intersections and sampled for fusiform-infected trees. When the ground survey is completed, the information will be sent to Atlanta, Georgia, where a map, showing areas if infection in Arkansas, will be prepared.

Hope Residents Approve Bonds for Two Plants by Overwhelming Vote

THOMAS E. HAYS JR.

A history of the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation was reviewed Tuesday by its president, Thomas E. Hays Jr., at a regular meeting of the Hope Kiwanis Club at Town & Country. He told about the West and North Industrial sites and the city-owned property. He also talked about the industrial prospects, the Permaneer Company, Tennessee Forging Steel Co., and Gulf State Paper Co. Election Act 9 and Amendment 49 were explained.

In conclusion Mr. Hays declared that growth is essential to the development of the human spirit. Without such growth, leaders lose their self esteem and their cities gradually decay and eventually cease to exist, he said.

"We must continually strive to develop ourselves and our community and organizations must accept new challenges and seek new ways in which to serve their fellow men more effectively," Mr. Hays declared, indicating that voting for Tuesdays bond issues was a step in this direction.

Guests of Teddy Jones were Walter Allen and Jimmy Reeves of Little Rock; Carl Hamilton was Eddie Whitman's guest, and Mrs. Sparks accompanied her husband, Mitchell.

Foreign Aid Bill Heads for a Vote

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Temporary life for foreign aid headed for a vote in the House today as the Senate continued work on a new and smaller assistance program.

The House leadership urged foreign aid opponents to save their cuts for a regular bill and to approve a continuing resolution—funding the program on a temporary basis past the Nov. 15 expiration date.

But some feared the House may not go along with the request. The foreign aid program was left in limbo Oct. 29 when the Senate voted to end more than two decades of foreign assistance.

On Tuesday, the Senate began debate on a $2.3-billion program—a $1.1-billion economic assistance measure and a military aid program of just under $1.2 billion.

The Senate's timetable for work on the two regular foreign aid bills called for final action by the end of the week.

Even if the Senate acted that fast, the House—where leaders want a $3-billion program—and Senate almost certainly could not work out a final new foreign aid authorization bill before the program expires.

All Around Town

The Ouachita Baptist University Boys Invitational Basketball Tournament will be held in Arkadelphia December 6-11. Participating schools are placed into two divisions, one for four A, triple A, and double A schools and the other for A and B schools. Hope has been placed in division one, and Lewisville, in division two.

Four high school choir members and their director, Mrs. Jan Morgan, attended a choral workshop and directors' clinic held on the Ouachita Baptist University campus on November 4. The choir members attending were Debra Hart, Linda Crews, Sharlette Hickles, and Lorraine White.

Two Hope residents will appear in a one-act student directed play to be presented at Southern State College Thursday and Friday nights in Overstreet Auditorium at 8 p.m., according to Jerry Cortez, assistant professor of speech and director of theater. Appearing in "Days of Absence" will be Linda Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown of 312 S. Hamilton; and Thomas Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Williams of 220 E. Avenue D.

Students must deposit $3 to reserve a copy of the 1972 BOBCAT, Hope High yearbook. The balance of $3 must be made in March before the books arrive. Members of the staff will take deposits during English classes Wednesday, November 10, and at Yerger Junior in the social studies classes Friday, November 12. For the first time individual pictures of the junior high students will be used in a special section of the annual. Clyde Davis will photograph students, Tuesday, November 16, at Junior High. For more information about deposits call Mrs. Mary Nell Turner at 777-3568 or G. Cook at Yerger Junior High.

$5.1 Million for Steel, Wood Plants

Nearly 1,500 residents of Hope turned out Tuesday to approve overwhelmingly two industrial bond issues that total $5.1 million. The vote was lopsided in favor on both issues. This was considered a large turnout for a special election.

One bond issue for $1.5 million is for Tennessee Forging Steel Company to build a completely new plant in the Proving Ground area near Oakhaven. The plant will initially employ 240 persons, many of them highly skilled.

The second was for $3.6 million which Permaneer Corp. will use to expand and remodel its existing plant in the Oakhaven area. This will add from 75 to 100 workers to its present payroll. Permaneer had already announced plans to build a new furniture factory in the same area with production projected by the end of 1972. This new industry will employ from 450 to 500 workers initially.

The overwhelming vote was a culmination of efforts led by the Arkansas Industrial Development Council and the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation. There was only token opposition.

Testimony in Murder Trial Begins Today

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Testimony was expected to begin today in Circuit Court here in the first-degree murder trial of Daniel L. Graham, 31, formerly of Springdale.

A jury of 10 men and two women was seated late Tuesday.

Graham is charged with fatally shooting two employees of a Springdale supermarket and wounding a third employee after he allegedly robbed the store June 18.

Killed were Kenneth Ames, 18, and Gene Franco, 23. A third person, Michael Hawkins, 18, was wounded.

A Warming Trend for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A slight warming trend is expected in Arkansas Thursday. Highs Tuesday were in the 50s and 60s, but highs Thursday should be in the mid 60s to mid 70s. Highs today are forecast in the 60s to low 70s.

The National Weather Service says a large high pressure ridge located over the Rockies appears strong enough to keep any major storm systems west and north of the state through the weekend. The extended outlook calls for partly cloudy skies, warm days and cool nights through Sunday.

Lows tonight should be in the low 30s northeast to low 40s southwest.

Technological Pact by Three States

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi entered into an agreement Tuesday to share science and technological data developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams and Gov. Dale Bumpers of Arkansas signed the agreement Tuesday. Gov. John McKeithen was to sign later. The agreement was made while the three were attending the 37th Southern Governor's Conference in Atlanta.

Williams and Bumpers said the information would assist their states in solving environmental management problems relating to housing, health, environmental control and transportation.

The governors said that a new regional advisory and development group—the Louisiana, Arkansas and Mississippi Science and Technology Council—will be created by the agreement.

The three states also will develop individual projects affecting all states, Bumpers said.

Bumpers said that NASA's work in satellite photography would be of great use in solving such agricultural problems as distinguishing between diseased and healthy crops.

Other uses of the photography, he said, would be to spot forest fires, detect the dumping of industrial wastes into streams and help in prediction of crop yields.

Veteran Denies Saying He Would Help McGovern

FT. MCPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — Lt. Col. Anthony Herbert says Sen. George McGovern has telephoned to apologize for mistakenly announcing that the Army officer will join the senator's presidential campaign staff.

Herbert, the most decorated U.S. man of the Korean War who is in the process of retiring from the Army, said Tuesday he was sure McGovern's impression that he had accepted the job offer "was an honest mistake."

The officer said that during the telephone conversation McGovern told him, "I'm interested in having you work for me as a military adviser and we'll talk about it when you get out of the Army."

Earlier Tuesday McGovern, a South Dakota Democrat, had said Herbert would join his staff. Herbert called the announcement "a mixup."

Govenors Pass Busing Resolution

By WILLIAM L. CHAZE

Associated Press Writer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) —

Southern governors were ready to adjourn their annual conference today after voting on an antibusing resolution stitched together by Alabama Gov. George Wallace and others.

Approval of the resolution, which bears a strong resemblance to one adopted by the governors at Biloxi, Miss., last year, seems assured.

The resolution takes the antibusing stand of the conference step further, however, by urging the U.S. Senate to approve a pending measure that would bar the spending of federal funds for busing.

It calls upon Congress to "enact a single national policy for the desegregation of public schools, that policy to be applied uniformly throughout the nation by all branches of the federal government."

The resolution was approved Tuesday by a committee composed of Wallace and Govs. Winfield Dunn of Tennessee, John West of South Carolina and David Hall of Oklahoma. The panel was chaired by Gov. Louis Ferre of Puerto Rico.

Wallace and Gov. John Bell Williams of Mississippi, two of the region's most outspoken busing foes, both offered resolutions, but the resolution reported out by the committee bore no signatures.

"It was a committee action," said Wallace, a possible 1972 presidential contender.

The conference, under way in the Georgia capital since Sunday, has been a subdued affair.

The conference produced its few sparks Tuesday when Jerris Leonard, head of the Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, spoke of his agency's work. Virginia Gov. Linwood Holton, a Republican, told Leonard that as far as Virginia was concerned, the administration was running a "fake program" because states will soon be required to match federal grants with 6.5 per cent state grants.

Virginia, said the governor, was unable to pay its full share required under the 1970 amendment to the Crime Control and Safe Streets Act and thus would not receive all the federal crime-fighting money that might otherwise be available.

Advisers Had No Knowledge of Maddacre

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Writer

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP) —

The chief American advisers to the South Vietnamese government in the My Lai area say none of their numerous sources even hinted that a massacre of civilians by U.S. troops had taken place there.

The lead-off defense witness told the court martial of Col. Oran K. Henderson Tuesday there was no word from any organization "which was pre-occupied with human welfare. They would normally raise the point with me if they thought something improper was going on."

The testimony of James A. May and two other witnesses was intended to provide for the seven officers trying Henderson on charges of attempting to cover up the massacre, a sense of the violent Communist make-up of the area and to show that what happened in My Lai was not general knowledge.

Henderson is accused of failing to adequately investigate reports that civilians were killed indiscriminately, failing to move the allegations upward through channels and later making a false statement under oath to Army investigators.

May said that when he was senior province adviser in Quang Ngai his information sources included such groups as the International Voluntary Services, Quakers, the Canadian Medical Team and the Red Cross.

"Did you receive any information from any source of a number of civilians killed or murdered by any means in the My Lai 4 area?" asked Lt. Col. Frank A. Dorsey, Henderson's military lawyer.

A. No, I did not.

Q. Had such an occurrence taken place, would you have expected to receive such information?

A. Yes, I would have. The other witnesses were Lt. Col. Donald R. Keating, who was assistant province adviser for revolutionary development, and Lt. Col. David C. Gavin, adviser for Son Tinh district.

They also testified that if they had received unspecified reports of atrocities they would have dismissed them as Communist propaganda.

Convicted of Fraud in F-111 Bomber Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Harry C. Bass of St. Louis, Mo., president of Elb Manufacturing Co. of Walnut Ridge, was sentenced Tuesday to four years in prison and fined $20,000 on conviction of two counts of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Bass was convicted of attempting to sell defective parts to General Dynamics Corp., prime contractor for the controversial F111 fighter-bomber.

He also was convicted of altering serial numbers of defective parts that had been returned by General Dynamics to Selb and then resubmitting the defective items under new serial numbers.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley fined Bass $10,000 on each of the convictions. Henley also gave Bass a four-year sentence on each conviction, but said the sentences would be served concurrently.

Robert V. Light of Little Rock, Bass' attorney, said he would appeal. Bass remained free on bond.

Henley also fined the Selb firm itself $5,000 on conviction of participating in the alleged conspiracy.

Light asked for leniency from Henley, saying that Bass had undergone punishment enough through the publicity of the trial, the destruction of his business and the "agony" of being convicted.

Surcharge Is Raising Money

By BILL NEIKIRK

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

10-per-cent import surcharge is proving to be a productive money-raiser, bringing $99 million into the Treasury in its first 45 days of life, it has been learned.

The surcharge might have brought in much more had the government not exempted about $1.5 billion worth of imports either en route to the United States or tied up by a dock strike when President Nixon imposed the levy Aug. 15.

The administration has officially estimated the surcharge would bring in about $2.1 billion in revenue if maintained on imports for an entire year. The surtax applies only to dutiable imports not covered by mandatory quotas.

The $99 million collected from Aug. 16 to Sept. 30 falls short of that estimated annual pace, possibly because of the huge one-time exemption on imports in transit and because of the uncertainty that followed imposition of the tax.

Officials say the uncertainty may have caused some importers to hold back on shipments until it was cleared up.

The Treasury plans to release later this week a breakdown showing that the surtax by itself is hardly enough to achieve the $13-billion balance-of-payments-deficit turnaround sought by the Nixon administration. The administration has said the surcharge will be lifted when there are assurances the deficit can be erased.

But it is proving a powerful economic tool, collectable quickly, and apparently achieving its purpose of boosting the price of foreign goods coming into the country. It could be said that the surcharge increased the price of imported goods by $99 million from Aug. 16 to Sept. 30.

The surcharge can be legally passed on to consumers in the form of higher prices despite the price freeze.

Nixon imposed the surcharge and announced the United

Investigates Gas Emissions

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—

Charles Stone, a state geologist, said Tuesday that a study was being made of a nontoxic, hot gas that is spewing from the ground about 10 miles west of Jessieville (Garland County).

Stone said the gas did not have the characteristics of the hot springs in Hot Springs National Park. He said more tests were being made to find out exactly what is causing the gas. He said, however, that it was probably "related" to a hot spring.

He said the gas is escaping from small cracks in the earth in an area about 60 feet long and 10 feet wide. Some of the emissions go several feet into the air and are visible, he said.

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

Duel Damon Hoover, 20, of Hartman (Logan County) was killed early today when the car he was driving collided with a tractor-trailer rig on U.S. 64 near Clarksville.

State Police said the accident occurred when Hoover's car attempted to pass another vehicle and struck a tractor-trailer driven by Clarence R. Whittle, 27, of Oktaha, Okla. Whittle was hospitalized at Clarksville.

Convicted of Fraud in F-111 Bomber Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Harry C. Bass of St. Louis, Mo., president of Elb Manufacturing Co. of Walnut Ridge, was sentenced Tuesday to four years in prison and fined $20,000 on conviction of two counts of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Bass was convicted of attempting to sell defective parts to General Dynamics Corp., prime contractor for the controversial F111 fighter-bomber.

He also was convicted of altering serial numbers of defective parts that had been returned by General Dynamics to Selb and then resubmitting the defective items under new serial numbers.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley fined Bass $10,000 on each of the convictions. Henley also gave Bass a four-year sentence on each conviction, but said the sentences would be served concurrently.

Robert V. Light of Little Rock, Bass' attorney, said he would appeal. Bass remained free on bond.

Henley also fined the Selb firm itself $5,000 on conviction of participating in the alleged conspiracy.

Light asked for leniency from Henley, saying that Bass had undergone punishment enough through the publicity of the trial, the destruction of his business and the "agony" of being convicted.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

AND THIS LITTLE PIGGY BANK HAD NONE!

Dear Helen:
Our smallest son has a big piggy bank from which you can only extract coins by using the "knife and shake" method. We can't count the money we've all put in over the years, but when it gets full, Tommy will use it for something special, maybe a bike.

The other day when I moved the bank to dust, it felt much lighter than usual. Someone has been borrowing, I thought, so I asked at the dinner table, and all six of our children and my husband emphatically denied it. This threw me! A simple "temporary loan" should be easy to confess, but now with everyone declaring innocence, it has suddenly become "The Great Piggy Bank Robbery." I feel that I can't trust anyone in the family. What's worse, Bobby has lost faith. Each of us seems to blame the other, and the bank sits there on the shelf, like a big accuser, condemning us all. We don't mention it, but I can't forget. A normally very close relationship is being splintered.

You can say it's no big thing, and it isn't - moneywise. But how can I get back on an even keel with my family? —LOST TRUST
Dear Lost:

Has it occurred to you that the person or persons who borrowed the money may have repaid it in dollar bills? Yes, I kinda doubt this, too, but there's no telling what will happen if you announce at the dinner table that Tommy can break his piggy bank on Thanksgiving Day - and you're SURE he won't be disappointed. Members of a close-knit family might feel squeamish about confession, but they won't let the littlest guy down. I'll bet he finds more in his bank than any of you expect... and don't even try to guess who put it there! —H.

P.S. It just occurred to me: If Tommy, himself, is the borrower and everyone replaces money on the assumption that the real culprit might not-Tommy may start thinking "crime pays." Or else his guilty conscience will make an honest man of him.

No matter what, you probably won't hear the complete story until you meet for a family reunion some 20 years from now, when you can all laugh about it.

Dear Helen:
I just had to sit down and tell you about a nice experience. I called a cab in our great, smoggy city and, when I climbed in, suddenly I was surrounded with color.

The whole interior was decorated with yellow and orange imitation flowers, and that's not all: The ceiling had cutouts of flowers, butterflies and mushrooms scattered all over it.

The driver was a pleasant, charming, well-groomed young woman who seemed to really enjoy having me as a passenger. You said recently that happier times will grow out of better one-to-one relationships. So true! My short taxi ride brightened my morning and so I was nicer to everyone I met. Perhaps those people in turn treated others better because I cheered them up a bit.

And maybe my letter will be read by the driver of the colorful cab, so that she'll know what a chain reaction she started. Thanks, Flower Lady! —RIDER

Dear Rider:

And thanks for writing, kind sir. You started a lovely chain reaction at our house, too. I was so cheered by your up-beat note that I went out and hugged my husband, who in turn hugged our daughter, Sue, who hugged a neighbor, who hugged her back because he happens to be her boy friend.

May the colorful cab with its happy driver be often at your door! —H.

If you have any questions regarding social security, send them to the Social Security Office, Box 1319, Texarkana, Texas 75501 Attention: Glenda Bozeman

Q. I was married recently and need to have my name changed on my social security card. How long will this take?

A. If you have your old card, take it to the social security office and a corrected card can be issued immediately. If you do not have your old card, it will take about 10 days to get a corrected one.

Q. I have lost my Medicare card. How do I get a new one?

A. Call your social security office. They will request a new card for you. This will take about 3 or 4 weeks.

Q. I was recently involved in an accident and am now confined to bed at home. The doctor says I will be off work at least 18 months. How can I file a claim for disability benefits?

A. If you have a phone, call your social security office collect at 214-794-3755. It may be possible to complete your claim by telephone. If you do not have a phone, write a letter to the social security office and request that a representative be sent to your home to take your claim.

Q. I am nearing 65 and want to file for Medicare, but I can't get off work long enough to go by the social security office. Can this be handled by telephone?

A. In most instances the entire application can be handled by telephone. The telephone number of the Texarkana office is 214-794-3755. You may call collect.

Q. I receive widow's benefits on my deceased husband's record. I will be getting married again soon. Will my benefits be stopped?

A. No. A widow who remarries after age 60 will still be entitled to benefits on her deceased husband's record, but at a reduced rate.

Says Churches Guilty of Neglecting Aged

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Dale Cowling, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Little Rock, said Monday that he doubted "if any institution is as guilty of the sin of neglect of older people as is the church."

Cowling made the remark in a public hearing on the problems on aging conducted by the Arkansas delegates to the National Conference on Aging, which will open Nov. 28 in Washington.

The hearing was held in the old Supreme Court Chamber at the state Capitol.

Cowling told the delegates that they should advocate greater use of church facility by the elderly. However, he said he was "a little discouraged about churches doing things for old people."

Mrs. Jo Jackson, director of the Arkansas Manpower Council, said the delegates should ask for more job opportunities for the elderly.

Marion Payne, director of social services for the State Hospital, said that there should be some alternative to sending old people to either nursing homes or mental institutions. He said many persons in the state hospital could leave if they had somewhere to go.

Maxson of SMU Is Like Morton

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — You can't tell an Alvin Maxson to tuck the football away like a plodding fullback. It's not his style.

Miscues by Maxson hurt SMU last week in a 27-10 loss to Texas A&M, but the 185-pound sophomore is certain to be at tailback Saturday when the Mustangs take on Arkansas at Dallas in a regionally televised game.

"He's like Dickey Morton at Arkansas," says SMU Coach Hayden Fry. "They're such explosive runners... these things just happen. They certainly don't mean to fumble."

Morton's two fumbles in the early minutes last week gave Rice a 10-0 lead over the Razorbacks in a game that ended 24-24.

"They run with wild abandon as opposed to big lumbering backs who tuck the ball away with both hands," Fry said. "These guys are flying by their shittails."

"Maxson had a couple of critical fumbles against A&M," Fry said. "He fumbled around the seven when we had the momentum going and then fumbled a pitchout on our 20 that they recovered for an easy touchdown. He also dropped a pass around the five that would have given us a first down. But, he's our best running back and we've got to have him in there."

Prior to last week, Maxson was the leading rusher in the Southwest Conference and Morton was second. Maxson gained 68 yards on 17 carries against the Aggies, including a 51-yard scoring run. Morton carried six times against the Owls for a net 20 yards.

SMU began the season with Fry's version of the Wishbone-T, but switched back to the I formation about four weeks ago.

"You've got to have a good fullback and another good halfback to run with the Wishbone and we just didn't have the horses," Fry said. "We went back to the I to get Maxson in the middle of the formation so he can go in either direction."

Both Arkansas and SMU have an outside shot at the SWC title. Both need outside help. Arkansas is 3-1-1 with SMU and Texas Tech remaining. SMU is 2-2 with Arkansas, Baylor and TCU remaining.

Texas, 4-1 in the conference, and TCU, 3-1 in conference play, meet Saturday.

SMU whipped Rice 16-10 and Texas Tech 18-17 before losing to Texas 22-18 on a disputed touchdown.

"There's no way to tell how much that took out of us," Fry said. "I'm not trying to take anything away from A&M but we were feeling pretty low last week. Evidently, I did a poor job of getting my players to forget about the Texas game."

Fry said several SMU players were injured in the Texas game and that A&M "finished us off." He said he would hold several players out of practice this week in the hope that they would be able to play against Arkansas.

"We are so uncertain about who's going to play for us that we still haven't made up our game plan," Fry said. "We're trying to evaluate the players to see who can do what."

"When you lose, nothing looks real good," Fry said.

Class AA Playoff Schedule

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Class AA high school football playoffs afford Van Buren and Batesville a rare chance for revenge.

Van Buren plays Rogers and Batesville meets Stuttgart in the first round of the playoffs Friday night.

Rogers, the Region 1AA champion, beat Van Buren, the Region 2AA winner, 27-21, earlier in the season. Stuttgart, champion of 4AA, whipped Batesville, winner of 3AA, 35-0 on Oct. 15.

The Rogers-Van Buren game is at Rogers. Batesville and Stuttgart play at Batesville.

Rogers is 8-0-1 for the season. Van Buren is 6-4. Batesville is 8-1-1. Stuttgart 9-1.

The other AA playoffs match Morrilton (10-0) against Hot Springs Lakeside (9-1) at Morrilton and McGehee (9-1) against Magnolia (7-2-1) at Magnolia.

Morrilton is the 5AA champion. Lakeside won in 6AA, Magnolia in 7AA and McGehee in 8AA.

The playoff semifinals will be Nov. 19 or 20 at a site to be agreed upon by the two teams. The finals will be held Nov. 26 or 27.

Here are the pairings for the Class AA playoffs:

Atkins, 1A, 8-2 at Greenwood, 4A, 7-2-1.
Nashville, 7A, 7-3 at Little Rock Robinson, 5A, 5-4.
Augusta, 3A, 8-2 at Walnut Ridge, 2A, 7-2-1.
Clarendon, 6A, 7-1-2 at Rison, 8A, 9-1.

In Class B, Harding Academy (9-0) and Danville (7-1) drew first-round byes.

Gentry (7-2-1) meets Magnet

U.S. Team Favored in World Cup

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

PALEM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — South Africa's Gary Player sloshed around PGA National Golf Club and predicted "a four-under-par total will win on the longest, toughest course ever to host the World Cup."

The Johannesburg mini-brute is paired with Harold Henning for Thursday's teeoff featuring two-man entries from 46 nations in team and individual competition.

"Scores will be the highest in World Cup history," said the 34-year-old Player. "You'll see a lot of rounds in the 80s, a few in the 90s and maybe some even higher."

The Player-Henning team won the World Cup for South Africa in 1965.

The 6,096-yard east course is water-logged from recent rains and Player said Tuesday that the fluffy Bermuda grass in the rough "is much tougher than it was for the PGA championship."

Jack Nicklaus, winner of the PGA in February, was sleeping off the drain of a 31-hour flight from Australia. His lakeside home is only 10 minutes from the course.

Nicklaus is the U.S. representative along with U.S. Open king Lee Trevino. "The U.S. is the unquestioned favorite," said Player. "Nicklaus on a good day is unbeatable, and he's been playing awfully well."

While Trevino was virtually locking up the money title on the $7 million American tour, Nicklaus was capturing the less-profitable events on the international prestige trail in Australia.

Player and Nicklaus were flying companions on the Monday journey from Sydney that included stops in the Fiji Islands, Hawaii, Dallas and Atlanta.

"Jack couldn't get himself out of bed this morning," Player said, splashing up the fairway during Tuesday's practice round. "I've battled the severe time change problem for a long while. I think Nicklaus is doing it wrong... you should get on the local time as quickly as possible, even if it knocks you for a loop."

Player said most of the World Cup entries would be using the smaller British ball "which goes farther and cuts into the wind like you have in Florida."

The American-made balls are said to be easier to control.

According to tournament supervisor Jack Tuthill, golfers will be permitted to switch back and forth between the different sizes from hole to hole.

Cove (6-2-2) at Russellville and Mineral Springs (7-3) plays Gillett (9-1) at Arkadelphia in the first round of the Class B playoffs.

Rice's Gadd Is Player of Week

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Bruce Gadd found it difficult to revel in his own moment of personal glory last Saturday night.

The junior quarterback came off the bench to throw two touchdowns passes and pull the Rice Owls within an eyelash of a stunning upset of 18th ranked Arkansas.

But Gadd's impressive return to the starting quarterback position was brunt by Arkansas' last second field goal that netted a 24-24 tie.

Gadd, who completed 12 of 15 passes against the Razorbacks, got another chance to take a bow today when he was named the Associated Press Southwest Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

"It was a real heart-breaker," Gadd said. "It was a real tough moment in the dressing room right after the game. No one could talk to anyone. Everybody had his own idea about what happened."

"But I think after everyone calmed down we realized that we can put it all together now and maybe it wasn't quite as bad as it seemed."

Gadd's performance was by far his best of the season. It earned him the starting quarterback job back from senior Phillip Wood, who took over the job in the LSU game.

"The past few weeks I had sort of a mental letdown," Gadd said. "I guess it was partly getting shot out of the saddle in the LSU game. But I felt good for this game, partly because Coach Tobin Rote told me I might play more in this game."

Suns Scare Daylights Out of Bucks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Phoenix Suns scared the daylights out of the Milwaukee Bucks, but the National Basketball Association champions prevailed in a fierce struggle that seemed like a playoff game in March.

"Phoenix played a fantastic game, they really wanted this one," said Milwaukee coach Larry Costello Tuesday night after the Bucks had pulled out a 118-113 victory after trailing by seven points at 97-90 early in the last quarter.

It took a 44-point performance by Kareem Jabbar and two key steals by Lucius Allen and Bob Dandridge in the last minute with the Bucks ahead 115-113 for the NBA champions to win their 16th straight on their home court. The score was tied 14 times and the lead changed hands 10 times.

The Golden State Warriors whipped Houston 115-99, Los Angeles downed Chicago 122-109 and Buffalo defeated Portland 109-100 in the other NBA games scheduled.

"The Suns hustled, hit the open man and had an awful lot of layups, particularly in the third quarter," Costello commented.

As for Cotton Fitzsimmons, the Phoenix coach, he said, "Jabbar takes all the fun out of coaching for me. Here we screen, we pick, we pass and all they have to do is throw it to the big safety valve and he drops it in."

"When we were up 97-90," Fitzsimmons continued. "We let him get the ball too much. And when the pressure was on, our playmaking left something to be desired. The Bucks play with a little more confidence than the Suns when they're behind. I think that was the whole story."

A three-point play by Jabbar tied the score at 106-106 with 4:10 left to play and with 3:38 on the clock a hook by Jabbar put the Bucks ahead for good at 108-106. Connie Hawkins was high for the suns with 28.

Houston, led by Stu Lantz the game's high scorer with 30 points, opened a 15-point bulge in the first half before the Warriors erupted after halftime. Cazzie Russell sparked the rally with 12 points in the third period. He finished with 23.

The victory kept the Warriors on the heels of the first place Lakers in the Pacific Division. Jim McMillian led the Lakers over the Bulls with 28 points. Bob Love topped Chicago with 25.

"M-Plan" Seems to be Working for Condors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mark Binstein's "M-plan" is working like magic. That was evident Tuesday night as Binstein's Pittsburgh Condors beat the Indiana Pacers 133-123 in their American Basketball Association game.

The victory was the Condors' third in four games since Binstein replaced Jack McMahon as coach and boosted their over-all record to 7-7.

Binstein's game plan called for guard George Thompson to play up front against Indiana's forwards, and forwards John Brisker and Stew Johnson to switch to the backcourt against the Pacers' smaller guards.

Thompson led all scorers with 33 points and Brisker followed with 31. Brisker collected 14 points against the mismatch and Johnson got all 16 of his points from his unaccustomed guard position.

Rick Mount paced Indiana with 27 points, while rookie George McGinnis contributed 26 points and a game-high 25 rebounds.

Elsewhere in the ABA, Dallas held off New York 90-86, Kentucky downed Denver 106-96, and Utah edged Memphis 93-90.

Dallas, with the help of Steve Jones' 10 consecutive field goals, built an 81-67 third-quarter lead against New York. But in the final period, the Chaparrals hit on only two of 20 floor shots and scored just nine points. Still, the Nets couldn't catch them.

Time Is Now for Titans of SE, Georgia-Auburn

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It's look-ahead time in the college football world with Nebraska, Oklahoma, Michigan and Alabama all undergoing final tune-ups before their biggest games of the season. But it's NOW time for Auburn and Georgia.

Those Southeastern Conference titans, two of the nine unbeaten teams in the land, clash at Athens, Ga., in a game that will go a long way not only in deciding the SEC champion, but a couple of bowl berths, as well.

Both teams will be in post-season action somewhere. The loser will drop out of contention for the national championship, which will probably be decided in the Orange or Sugar Bowl, but may wind up in the Cotton Bowl.

The Georgia defense has chalked up four shutouts in the last eight games and allowed only seven points in each of the four others. But they haven't faced a quarterback who's having the kind of year Auburn's Pat Sullivan is having.

None of Georgia's previous opponents is in the Top Twenty. Auburn survived a 10-9 scare at Tennessee earlier in the season. Buoyed by the knowledge that the big SEC games—Auburn at Tennessee, Alabama at Louisiana State—have gone to the visitors, one shaky vote is cast for ... AUBURN.

Nebraska at Kansas State—Next ... Oklahoma. The Cornhuskers throttled Iowa State 37-0 last Saturday and now go after K-State's Dennis Morrison, who is coming off a 363-yard passing effort. NEBRASKA.

Kansas at Oklahoma—Next ... Nebraska. The Sooners were held to 20 points by Missouri, but Kansas has been jolted for 30 by Florida State, 38 by Minnesota, 55 by Nebraska, 40 by Iowa State and 35 by Colorado. OKLAHOMA.

Miami, Fla. at Alabama—Next ... Auburn. And coming off the dramatic conquest of LSU, this would be the perfect time for a letdown, especially with ace runner Johnny Musso sidelined. But Bear Bryant doesn't have many letdowns. ALABAMA.

North Carolina State at Penn State—N.C. State's Al Michaels was a star quarterback at Penn State during his playing days and as assistant coach from 1935-53. The Lions wouldn't want to show an alumnus a losing team. PENN STATE.

Texas Christian at Texas—A victory would put TCU in the Southwest Conference lead and the Horned Frogs have been on an emotional binge since the death of Coach Jim Pittman. This also will be an emotional time for Darrell Royal, of Texas, who was Pittman's boss for 12 years at Mississippi State, Washington and ... TEXAS.

Stanford Player Named AP Line-man of Week

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jeff Siemon was in on 17 tackles Saturday as Stanford defeated UCLA 20-9 and clinched its second straight Pacific-8 championship and the Rose Bowl berth that goes with it.

So what else is new? "We expect him to get 17 tackles every week," says Coach John Ralston. "He's never had a bad game."

This, however, was one of Siemon's better ones and it earned the 6-foot-2, 233-pound linebacker from Bakersfield, Calif., honors as The Associated Press' national college Lineman of the Week. Siemon's tackles included a number of third-down stops that forced UCLA to punt.

Siemon isn't the sort of middle linebacker who'll range from sideline to sideline making spectacular tackles. But, says Ralston, "He takes care of things from tackle to tackle like no one you've ever seen."

Heroes are nothing new to Siemon. In the 1970 opener against Arkansas, he made a key third-down stop to preserve a 34-28 victory. And he made 15 tackles in Stanford's Rose Bowl triumph over Ohio State last Jan. 1.

Junior, Senior Girls Open Cage Season With Wins

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Basketball has started in Hope—and in fine fashion as far as the Hope Ladycats and Kittycats are concerned.

Starting the season against the Spring Hill Bears, the Ladycats won easily, 77-48, while the Kittycats knocked off their opponent also by a 42-31 marking.

Falling behind, 3-0, the Ladies revved up the offensive machine and came back to take a 23-13 lead, while starting the second period of play. Shots by Janet McCain and Dee Singleton widened the gap to 37-24 when Spring Hill called a timeout with just over three minutes to go in the half.

Singleton hit two layups and McCain dropped in two free throws to give the Ladycats a fairly comfortable 43-30 margin at halftime. And with Hope getting the second half tipoff, the score was to start getting even wider.

Reeling off 11 points in less than two minutes, the Ladies soon had a 20 point spread with the reserves beginning to sift in for some action and to give the starters a breather.

With 48 seconds left in the quarter, Betty Rodden hit a jump shot to give Hope a 61-39 margin with only one period left to play. Taking the ball first once again, the Ladies started moving. Singleton and Rodden hit on various shots and the guards played solid defense to finish out the game. McCain led all scorers with 30 points, followed by Singleton who connected for 19, Rodden hitting 17, and Coleman getting six.

Earlier the Junior Kittycats took a 25-15 halftime lead and went on to beat the Bears, 42-31, in the first game.

Although Spring Hill scored the first point of the game, the Kittycats seemed to get most of the others, with Gail East and Pogo Griffin hitting the net early. Hope moved into the second quarter with a 17-7 margin after Griffin hit a two pointer with only a few seconds left in the first period.

However, both teams hit cold streaks and could only get eight points each as the Kittycats went in a halftime with a 25-15 margin.

At the outset of the second half, Hope began to move after East sank a free throw and Susan Henley pushed in two points. With reserves now coming for some of the starters, they too, played well, as the Juniors kept scoring and took a 36-20 margin into the last period of play.

Although getting the tipoff and scoring first on a goal by Griffin, the Kittycats could only score seven points in the last quarter, but it seemed to be quite enough for the margin of victory.

Everyone now looks forward to November 22, when the teams collide in their next game with Ashdown, always a real exciting game.

Banquet Held for Pee Wee Grid Team

The Blues' team of the PeeWee Football League, sponsored by First National Bank, held its post season banquet recently in the Douglas Building.

Winning first place with a 6-0 season record, the Blues rolled up 153 points to their opponents 38.

Individual trophies were presented to each player by Joe Eason, representing First National. Following the presentation, Coaches Coy Elledge and Robert Vandivere made short talks.

Joe Torre Named Most Valuable

By PAUL LEBAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) — "Over the years I think it's gone to the right player," said Joe Torre, who Tuesday climaxed an 11-season major league baseball career with his selection as the National League's Most Valuable Player.

But, Torre added, "to win it so overwhelmingly is a surprise. You definitely think about it; you know that the voting is done as soon as the season's over. I had a feeling I'd get it."

The 6-foot-1, 200-pound Torre, only the third baseman to win the award, also became the 10th St. Louis Cardinal to snare an honor Stan Musial won three times.

His margin over runnerup Willie Stargell of the Pittsburgh Pirates, the majors' home run king, was 318-222 in balloting points by a committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Torre received 21 of the committee's 24 first-place votes, Stargell polling the other three. Third place went to the Atlanta Braves' inveterate Hank Aaron. "What hurt Stargell in the voting, I think, was that it was tough to single out a player on Pittsburgh's ball club," the 31-year-old Torre said.

"I never considered this kind of year," said Torre, who batted .363 to lead the majors and had 137 RBI, 230 hits and 352 total bases for other leading marks.

"There is more than one reason for why it happened, I think, but the only thing I was conscious of that was different from any other year was concentration."

"I've never had this kind of concentration," said Torre, who hit safely in 133 of 161 games in which he played. "I think the reason is that I got away from catching. You don't realize it until you get away from it that catching takes so much away."

An All-Star catcher while with the Atlanta Braves eight seasons, Torre called his 1969 trade to the Cards while involved in a salary dispute "like being reborn."

"Over in Atlanta they thought I was a home run hitter," noted Torre, who in 1966 slugged 36 home runs. "I changed when I came over here. A good deal of it had to do with the ball park."

With the Cards, Torre has had RBI totals of 101 in 1969, 100 in 1970 and the 137 of last season, a high total for the club since Johnny Mize equaled the figure in 1937.

Another key to his upswing in batting, he said, was a water diet responsible for the loss of 25 pounds in his playing weight during spring training in 1970. "It made me quicker," he said. After surging to a .325 batting mark in 1970, Torre was rewarded with a contract for the 1971 season calling for an estimated $115,000.

"I don't think there's going to be any trouble this year," he said in regard to his 1972 pay. "As far as a contract goes, it's secondary to the ball club. When you get to be 31 and going on 32 time is beginning to run out and I've never played for a pennant winner."

"I felt that I could knock in 110 runs with Lou Brock and Matty Alou batting in front of

Wholesale Changes in Prep School Poll

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Once again, there are wholesale changes in The Associated Press high school football poll.

Only top-ranked Stuttgart, fifth-ranked Little Rock Parkview and ninth-ranked Forrest City occupy the same positions they did a week ago.

Fort Smith Northside, which dropped from first to third last week after losing to Little Rock Hall, climbed into the No. 2 spot this week. The Grizzlies received four first place votes to 11 for Stuttgart and are five points behind the Ricebirds in the balloting by a panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

Hot Springs, second last week, had to score in the fourth quarter to defeat Springdale and dropped to fourth. Hall, idle last week, moved up a notch to third.

Parkview, an impressive winner over Fort Smith Southside, is followed by Little Rock McClellan, Little Rock Catholic, Texarkana, Forrest City and North Little Rock.

McClellan and Catholic both moved up a notch after sixth-ranked Rogers was tied by lowly Fayetteville. Rogers dropped out of the top 10. Texarkana climbed two spots after a 21-13 victory over Benton.

North Little Rock regained a spot in the top 10 by raising its record to 7-3 with a 31-7 triumph over Marianna.

Stuttgart was a unanimous choice for the top spot in Class AA, receiving all 16 first-place votes. Morrilton, which clinched the Region 5AA title with a victory over Conway, moved up from third to second and Rogers dropped to third.

Rison, District 8A champion, took over the top spot in the Class A rankings. Rison was third last week. Marked Tree fell to third after losing to Augusta 7-6. Augusta took over the No. 2 spot in the rankings. Des Arc, No. 2 last week, was beaten by Clarendon.

Harding Academy continues as a solid choice in Class B. Gillett, unranked a week ago, took over the No. 2 spot after Dierks was beaten by Mineral Springs. Danville remains third in the rankings.

Here are the results of The Associated Press high school me," said Torre, who produced 21 game-winning RBI and achieved a .566 percentage in driving across runners in scoring position.

"With our club you don't need a home run," said Torre, whose 24 circuit clouts included only nine in Busch Stadium. "To me it's more difficult to hit a single with a man on second base than it is to hit a home run."

Bobby Bonds of San Francisco finished fourth followed by Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, the Los Angeles Dodgers' Maury Wills and Cy Young Award winner Ferguson Jenkins of the Chicago Cubs in the MVP balloting.

"I'm very excited, even though I never show emotion," Torre said at a news conference while flanked by former Cardinals MVP winners Musial and Joe Medwick.

"I heard conversation around the league that I'd get it the last few weeks of the season," he said, "but I told myself I wasn't going to worry about it. I did have control over the batting title, and I was able to win it."

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — John Brockington, The Associated Press' Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League, has a simple but irrefutable approach to the game.

"If you're running slow, you get hit; and, if you're running fast, you're going to get hit; so you might as well run fast and hard," said Brockington, the Green Bay Packer rookie who rushed for 142 yards in 30 carries to spark a 17-14 victory over the Chicago Bears Sunday.

Brockington, the Packers' top draft choice, has three 100-or-more-yard games this season and 602 yards total for a brilliant 5.28-yards-per-carry average. He has a shot at both rookie of the year and membership in the exclusive 1,000-yard club.

Brockington is the hub of a running game which has emerged as a power in Dan Devine's first year as Green Bay coach. Donny Anderson has 483 yards and a 4.2 average, and Dave Hampton is 199 and 5.0.

Tackle Francis Peay says Brockington "doesn't hit the hole that much quicker than Anderson or Hampton; but, when he does, he just seems to explode through it."

The perfectionist Devine expects even greater things from Brockington. "He certainly ran extremely well, but he could have been better in other phases of play," Devine said. "He'll do anything, however. He loves to block and tackle. He just has many things to learn in his first year."

Brockington won Offensive Player of the Week honors over Baltimore veteran Tom Matte, who rushed for 97 yards and yard touchdowns on runs of 4 and 23 yards in 19 carries in the Colts' 24-17 victory over Los Angeles Monday night. Matte, 32, an 11-year veteran, was filling in for injured star Norm Bulaich.

Also considered for Offensive Player of the Week honors were Mercury Morris of Miami, Fran Tarkenton and Charlie Evans of the New York Giants and John Fuqua of Pittsburgh. Morris, subbing for the injured Jim Kiick, ran 13 times for 116 yards in Miami's 34-0 victory over Buffalo. The Giants beat San Diego 35-17 as Tarkenton completed 16 of 20 passes for 260 yards and a touchdown and Evans rushed for 63 yards and three touchdowns and caught six passes

Linebacker for Patriots Is Player of Week

By ED SCHUYLER JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The New England Patriots were trailing Houston with five minutes left and needed a big play. So, linebacker Steve Kiner made two of them in a performance that made him The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Kiner was named today over safety Bill Bradley, whose heroics helped earn the Philadelphia Eagles a surprising 7-7 tie with Washington Sunday.

Kiner intercepted a deflected pass that led to the touchdown that put the Patriots ahead 21-20 and then hit quarterback Dan Pastorini to force a fumble that led to an insurance score in 28-20 victory over Houston.

"We had to make something happen," said Kiner who was credited with eight tackles.

"He's the guy who turned it around for us," Patriots' Coach John Mazur said of Kiner. "He's played this way since he came here."

Kiner, a second-year pro from Tennessee, was obtained in a trade with Dallas.

Bradley made his presence felt in the second half when he intercepted two Washington passes and recovered a fumble. Bradley ran 18 yards with the recovered fumble to set up an attempted field goal, but it was blocked. His second interception, with 50 seconds left, helped get the Eagles in field goal position again but time ran out.

Others receiving consideration were safety Roosevelt Taylor of the San Francisco 49ers, end Alan Page of the Minnesota Vikings and linebacker Isiah Robertson of the Los Angeles Rams.

Taylor made a game-saving interception in 49ers 13-9 victory over Minnesota. Page made several tackles, forced a fumble, recovered two fumbles and blocked two passes for the Vikings. Robertson made five tackles, assisted on seven others and deflected two passes in the Rams' 24-17 loss to Baltimore.

U.S. Wins at International Horse Show

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. equestrian team has won the international championship of the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden in a close duel with Canada.

The Americans finished with 80 points to 74 for Canada and 36 for last-place Argentina as the week-long show ended Tuesday night.

A crowd of 9,000 saw U.S. riders capture first and second in the Grand Prix of New York, the last of the international jumping series.

The 1-2 finish of the Americans didn't mean anything in the final team standings, however.

Bob Ridland of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., rode Almost Persuaded to victory and Carol Hofmann of Elmont, N.Y., was aboard Pushover, who was second.

Under international rules, however, only four riders on each team are "designated." That means only the four may score for the team. Ridland and Miss Hofmann were the only two U.S. equestrian team riders who were not designated.

Neal Shapiro of Glen Head, N.Y., designated rider, piloting Sloopy, wound up third and collected four points for the United States. Barbara Simpson of the Canadian equestrian team, riding Catbird, was fourth and picked up two points for her squad.

for 69 yards. Fuqua picked up 131 yards in 30 carries in Pittsburgh's 26-9 victory over Cleveland.

Orioles Claim Ninth Victory In Japan

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP) — Don Buford stole two bases and batted in three runs as the American League champion Baltimore Orioles shaded Japan's Central League combination of the Tokyo Yomiuri Giants and the Hiroshima Toyo Carp 4-2 today.

Buford's fifth-inning two-run homer broke a scoreless tie and his sharp infield hit in the ninth gave the visitors their fourth run.

After two were out in the top of the fifth, Dave Johnson walked to set the stage for Buford's two-run circuit blast, his fourth in Japan, off the second Japanese hurler, Yoshitaka Kihara.

The Orioles scored their only other tally when Boog Powell singled with two men on in the eighth. Johnson, who had walked and moved to second on another walk by Buford, scampered home from second base.

The Japanese rapped out 11 hits off southpaw Mike Cuellar in 8 1-3 innings. Baltimore was only able to collect five hits off five Japanese hurlers. Baltimore boosted its record in Japan to nine triumphs against one loss and three ties.

Penn State Boasts AP's Back of Week

BY D. BYRON YAKE
Associated Press Sports Writer
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Who inspires Lydell Mitchell, the Penn State record breaker?

"Myself," answered Mitchell on a questionnaire last summer for the athletic department. "I have a lot of pride that makes me work hard. But I want to keep getting better."

The 200-pound running back seems to be fulfilling his goal. In the Nittany Lions' 63-27 victory Saturday over Maryland, Mitchell ran the ball 24 times, gained 209 yards, scored five touchdowns and broke or eclipsed six Penn State records.

For his performance, Mitchell, who admits he looks more like 35 than 22 because of a deep receding hairline, was named College Back of the Week by The Associated Press.

"Everyone says they don't pay much attention to records," said the soft-spoken Mitchell, who wants to make a career of law and or professional football.

"But if there are no records to be broken, there is not much sense in competing, is there? I've set high goals and I've attained them."

"My goals have changed some now," Mitchell said. "I just want to become a better football player. And I know there is always room for improvement."

Mitchell, with 21 season touchdowns, needs only three more to tie an NCAA record. He now holds Penn State's

Richardson Returns to Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Tailback Jon Richardson returned to practice Tuesday as the Arkansas Razorbacks went through a 2½ hour workout in 35-degree weather.

Coach Frank Broyles said Richardson seemed to feel much better and he practiced well. Richardson had been recovering from a broken leg bone.

Broyles said he was pleased with Tuesday's session. "We had a good effort, a real good effort," said Broyles.

One of the bright spots of the session was red-shirt sophomore Wayne Miles, who recently was activated. Miles, a 210-pound fullback from Magnolia, was brought up this week to fill in for regular fullbacks John Jenkins and Skipper DeBorde, who are sidelined with injuries.

"Wayne worked hard," said Broyles. "He knows what to do and he did it well."

Receiver Mike Reppond was expected to return to practice today. He suffered a bruised leg during the Rice game.

records for season rushing, season points, season touchdowns and career touchdowns.

Breaking the records Saturday wasn't Mitchell's happiest moment in college football competition.

"My happiest moment came when I was a sophomore in the Orange Bowl and scored the winning touchdown."

"But I seldom show my emotions outwardly. I more or less feel like I embarrass myself when I do that. It looks like I'm not really excited, but inside I am."

Mitchell admits he should be in the running for the Heisman Trophy this year.

Airport Is Attacked by Enemy

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacked the Phnom Penh airport and a radio transmitting station near the Cambodian capital early today, and the Cambodian command said at least 25 persons were killed and about 30 wounded.

In Vietnam, a politician reported under consideration for the premiership was assassinated in Saigon, five Americans died in a helicopter crash, a booby trap killed two U.S. soldiers near Hue, and U.S. planes made their 74th attack of the year inside North Vietnam.

The two attacks in Cambodia were coordinated. About fifty 100-pound rockets hit the military airport shortly after midnight, and at the same time sappers moving behind a rocket barrage assaulted the transmitting station nine miles northwest of the airport.

A spokesman for the Cambodian command, Lt. Col. Am Rong, said at least six persons, including five women, were killed in the shelling of the airport and others were killed at the transmitting station.

The politician assassinated in Saigon was Prof. Nguyen Van Bong, chairman of the anti-Communist Progressive Nationalist Movement. Two pounds of hidden plastic explosive blew up his automobile as he was going from his office to his home at noon.

A bodyguard and the chauffeur were also killed, and eight Vietnamese were wounded, including a second bodyguard and seven bystanders.

Bong, 42, was director of a training institute for civil servants. His party, which he once described as "Loyal opposition" to President Nguyen Van Thieu, won 15 of the 159 seats in the lower house of the National Assembly last August.

Environment Group Turns to Senate

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Environmentalists, whipped in the House, are turning to the Senate in efforts to mix more potent provisions into a bill to control pesticides.

By shouts, stand-up head counts, and voting-marches down the aisle Tuesday, the House rejected a series of amendments offered by Rep. John G. Dow, D-N.Y. The bill, he charged, is "essentially weaker than the present law and not nearly as protective of our environment as such a bill ought to be."

The House, going along with the product offered by its Agriculture Committee, agreed to one major revision—endorsed by Committee Chairman W.R. Poage, D-Tex.—to let states impose whatever additional restrictions they wish on all pesticides.

After approving that amendment by 167 to 56, the House sent the Nixon administration-endorsed bill to the Senate, 288 to 91. Poage said the bill contained vast, new powers for the Environmental Protection Agency.

The House rejected an amendment offered by Rep. John R. Rarick, D-La., that would have directed the President to bar importation of any commodities from nations which do not have at least equal restrictions on pesticides. Rarick's move lost by 43 to 36 after Poage—who said he personally favored the idea—urged the House to turn it down because he said Nixon would veto the whole bill if the provision was included.

Dow, supported by such groups as the Sierra Club and Friends of the Earth, fought for several changes that he viewed as vital to strong environmental protection legislation.

Dow contended, without success, that anyone who feels harmed should be allowed to appeal EPA's orders—although the committee bill limits such court challenges of such decisions to the chemical makers with a direct economic interest in the outcome.

Dow also failed in a challenge to provisions which would require EPA to pay indemnities to the makers of a pesticide whose registration is suspended or cancelled to prevent an imminent hazard. In all, three amendments revising the indemnity section were beaten.

Dow also lost a move to permit EPA to deny registration of a pesticide on the grounds that its use is not essential. The bill bars denial on that basis, although Dow said this is the current practice.

Bank Tellers Hear a Lot of Remarks That Cease to Be Funny

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks a bank teller gets tired of hearing:

"Just put it all in this little brown bag, and don't make a squawk."

"There must be some mistake. I couldn't be overdrawn. I'm never overdrawn this early in the month."

"Why is it I always seem to have less money this month than the month before?"

"Don't you ever get tired of handling other people's dough?"

"Would you mind looking through your change drawer for a 1916 penny minted in Denver? I need one to help complete my coin collection?"

"After I saw you at the $50 window at the racetrack last Saturday, Roger, I decided it might be a good idea to close out my account here."

"Don't get nervous. Just put it all in this little brown bag, and—"

"You may have a banker's hours, Roger, but the similarity stops right there."

"Are you sure the signature on this check is really mine? That doesn't look like the way I sign my name when I'm sober. Of course, on the other hand, I never write a check when I'm sober."

"Put it in, take it out. Put it in, take it out. Why don't I ever manage to keep a little for a rainy day so I can afford to buy an umbrella?"

"Where are you going on your vacation this year, Roger? Brazil?"

"Would you mind cashing my personal check for $215, and give it all to me in quarters? I want to pay off my no-good, two-bit chiseling landlord."

"If you give somebody too much money by mistake, Roger, do you have to pay it back?"

Prison Furlough Program to be Expanded

By DON FITZHUGH
Associated Press Writer

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)

Some 900 Connecticut prisoners have participated in a furlough program over the past two years without an escape attempt. Because of this the program has been expanded.

"We initially said the home visits were limited to men who were within 60 days of their release, and most of them came from various community release programs," said Deputy Correction Commissioner Raymond M. Lopes.

"But we now have directed institutions to grant furloughs to everyone who is considered a minimum risk individual," he added. "There are no particular offenses that would make a man ineligible, though we would take a long, hard look at, for instance, the aggressive sexual offender."

The program is in effect at all state correctional facilities.

Lopes said that since it was inaugurated in December 1969, not only have none of the inmates failed to return, but only one man was arrested and his case was not prosecuted.

The furloughs generally are for two or three days.

"During the first year, there was a big snow storm and many of the men couldn't make it back," Lopes said. "Most of them turned themselves in to the nearest corrections facility."

Basic decisions about who will get a furlough are made at individual institutions, which then forward them to Lopes for final approval.

While on furlough an inmate is limited to a specified town and the local police are notified, Lopes said.

The good comes in smoothing out marital problems and when a prisoner is looking for a job prior to release, he added.

"In many situations, we've had men who had marital problems, which were compounded when he wasn't at home," Lopes explained. "By being home for a short time, he has an opportunity to cement his marriage."

In order to be paroled, a prisoner has to have a job and a place to live and the furloughs give them a chance to seek employment.

Lopes is philosophical about the chance of the program's record going unscathed.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NBC, which announced Monday a temporary realignment of some of its programs, revealed on Tuesday the cancellation of five programs after about 13 episodes each: "Sarge," "The Funny Side," "The Partners," "The Good Life" and "The D. A." All were struck down by low Nielsen ratings.

NBC will replace "The D.

A." with "Sanford and Son," its answer to CBS' "All in the Family." Both are produced by Bud Yorkin and Norman Lear and are adaptations of British TV hits.

"Sanford and Son," to appear Friday nights beginning in January, involves a Los Angeles junk dealer and his partner-son.

Title roles will be played by black actors Redd Foxx and Demond Wilson. A comedy series about junk dealers is almost as big a gamble as one about a bigot.

An hour-long action show, "Emergency" will take over the Saturday evening spots to be vacated by "The Partners" and "The Good Life." This Jack Webb-produced show concerns the operations of the Los Angeles County paramedical rescue squad.

Replacing "Sarge" and "The Funny Side," soon to be in tandem on Tuesday nights, will be a weekly two hours of special programs, a mix of drama, variety, children's programs, news department documentaries and actuality shows.

PERSONAL FINANCE

A bill now in Congress could joyfully solve all our financial problems. This thoughtful (and badly neglected) proposal — along with companion legislation which we will advocate in just a moment—would simply relieve everyone of paying income tax.

HR 996 (the 996th bill introduced in the House of Representatives this session) has a simple but revolutionary premise. Housewives are wage earners.

The notion has been around, in vaporous form, for a long time. You've seen the newspaper or magazine fillers in which some heavy thinker is quoted on the value of a housewife's time. They go like this:

It would cost, say, $5,200 a year to hire a full-time cook. A cleaning woman, half days, with Sunday off, comes to $2,756. A governess to mind the children, $7,500. Ergo, the housewife is "earning" $15,456 a year.

Now, to Rep. Bertram Podell, D-N.Y., author of HR 996, this is not just an interesting bit of doodling. It is for real. The housewife, though not on anyone's payroll, is just as gainfully employed as, say, a neurosurgeon or a balloon vendor. And HR 996 would extend to her the benefits of the Keogh Act.

You can see how HR 996, together with our proposed companion legislation, will solve the nation's financial problems. So let's all put a shoulder to the wheel and push.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Trumpet Player's Neck Blows Up

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My problem is one that has stumped doctors where I live and no one seems to be able to help me. The problem is with my neck. Whenever I put the slightest bit of internal air pressure on it, it expands greatly. For instance, when I blow my nose this happens. I wouldn't mind so much but I am also a trumpet player and when I play my neck swells at least three inches all round the sides and in front. Besides being embarrassing, I also worry if it is hurting me in some way. I worry that sooner or later something might burst. Could you tell me why this happens and what to do about it? This would be very important to my career.

Dear Reader—You have a small leak at the top of your larynx that is connected to an air sac in the neck. The sac is like a deflated balloon until you start blowing. The internal pressure from blowing causes the leak to expand and the sac fills and, as you describe it, the sac is confined to the front and sides of the neck. It is fairly common in trumpet players.

Because the neck skin is loose it is easy to have the ballooned-out appearance you describe. It is not likely to hurt you but since it is important to your career, why don't you go see an ear, nose and throat specialist? He would be the one concerned with your type of problem.

The internal peak pressure at the level of the larynx while playing a trumpet is often enough to support a column of water over seven feet high.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I read your article on scaly skin spots which you said should be treated. I have one on my forehead, about the size of a dime. It was previously removed by a dermatologist in the VA hospital in May, 1967. It was pronounced a mild "keratosis" and non-malignant. A small area came back and is rough to touch. It has persisted for about six months now.

You mentioned that there were a number of salves that remove the spots by a "chemical burn." Would you be good enough to let me know of any of these that I might be able to procure without a prescription? I would be most appreciative of your advice as it is very expensive and virtually impossible to get a doctor.

Dear Reader—I wish I could. The truth is that all such spots treated with a salve should first be seen by a doctor. Some spots are from other causes. All of the salves that are worth anything for this are prescription items and you will need to see a doctor for proper treatment. If a spot like the one you described comes back it definitely should be seen and usually treated again.

Has Swivel Neck

The African bush baby cannot move its big, soulful eyes in their sockets and, to look at something to one side, it must actually turn its head. Its neck can swivel almost 180 degrees.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The military hand salute, with variations, is commonly used around the world. The World Almanac notes that hand-raising as a formal greeting probably originated with the cave-men, who wanted to show others that they carried no weapons. Later an armored knight raised his right arm to lift his helmet visor and to show friendship by keeping his sword hand away from his weapon.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The Stayman convention is in almost universal use by duplicate players. North and South were using it, but North decided with 4-4-3-2 distribution and honors in all four suits he would forget about looking for a 4-4 spade fit and raise his partner directly to the no-trump game.

South wasn't happy about the no-trump contract when he saw the dummy. There were nine easy tricks, but it was apparent if spades broke 3-2 there would be 10 easy tricks for a spade declarer. He noted further that without a diamond opening a no-trump declarer would have time to set up a club trick to score four no-trump.

All this thought would be unnecessary at rubber bridge, but this was match-point duplicate. South decided to go after the over-trick. He ducked one diamond and won the second. Then he ran off three spade tricks to see if that suit was divided 3-2. It was!

South's next play was dummy's five of clubs. West won with the ace, not the king and led another diamond. The last diamond stopper was gone but South did not cash out. Instead he played a second club from dummy. Down one at a cinch contract!

North didn't approve of South's play and expressed himself about it. However, when the scores were tabulated, down one at three no-trump was a zero, while three no-trump made on the nose would have been worth 1/2 match point only. Every other table had played at and made four spades. North's bidding, not South's play was at fault.

The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 2 N.T.
Pass 3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠
Pass 5 ♠ Pass 7 ♠

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2
♥ A K 6 5 4 3 2
♦ A Q 10 8 5 ♠ A 10 9
What do you do now?

A—Bid six diamonds. Your partner surely holds one ace and you want to be declarer in case he has two small in the other suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding five diamonds he has bid five clubs over your four spades. What do you do now?
